DEMOGRAPHICS

Skilled labour pool – 670,000 people employed in skilled occupations

264,000 are employed in manufacturing industry

Average earnings is 2.6% lower than the national average

190,000 people are currently unemployed, which is higher than the national average unemployment rate

Liberty Park Widnes sits at the heart of South Liverpool's thriving employment zone which is acknowledged both regionally and nationally as a premier location for a wide variety of business occupiers.

The area already plays host to Jaguar Land Rover's 300 acre state-of-the-art Halewood facility and many of their satellite businesses as well as the UK's fastest growing airport, Liverpool John Lennon. The area is set for further exponential growth with the recent opening of Peel's £400m Liverpool2 Deepwater Port.
